The provision of the treaty with Colombia providing for the protection of the canal by the United States is retained in the new treaty. The other features of the treaty, including those relating to the freedom of the canal to the commerce of the world, the rights of Panama to the collection of customs at Panama and Colon, the free importation of material for use in the construction, maintenance and operation of the canal, the maintenance by the United States of the neutrality of the Isthmus of Panama and the canal zone, are similar to those in the treaty with Co-

The members of the commission sent to Washington by the Panama Junta arrived here late to-night. They were met at the railroad station by Mr. Bunau Varilla, and were escorted by him to their hotel.

It was learned that the commission has received from the Government of Panama full powers to ratify or reject the canal treaty signed to-day and any other agreements that may be entered into between this Government and Mr. Bunau-Varilla and to act for the Panama Government in all matters affecting its relations with the United States and other countries.

COLOMBIA'S THREAT.

Likely to Sever Diplomatic Relations With the United States.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 .- Despatches received to-day by the State Department show that the relations between the Govenments of the United States and Colombia are in a critical condition. The Colombian Government is insisting that the ¡United States send troops to the Isthmus of Panama to preserve Colombian sovereignty in acoordance with Article XXXV. of the New Granadian treaty of 1846, by which this Government guarantees Isthmian neu-

Mr. Beaupré, the United States Minister at Bogota, has been virtually told by Colombia that if his Government should decline to carry out the neutrality provision of the treaty, relations between the United States and Colombia will be broken off. What was said to him constituted, in the onnervative language of an official here, "a veiled threat against the Government of the United States."

The advices from Mr. Beaupré were supplemented later in the day by both private and official despatches to the State Department that the Colombian States of Cauca and Antioquia were preparing to rise and join the Isthmian Republic.

A despatch received from Mr. Gudger the United States Consul-General at Panama, was to this effect:

There is a good deal of excitement in Buena Ventura. Some feeling against foreigners. Colombian Government is said to be considering a land invasion of the Isthmus.'

The advices from Minister Beaupré were contained in a message filed by him in Begots on Monday. In addition to what has already been given above, he said that the Colombian Government had requested that he inform it definitely whether the United States had recognized the Panama separatists and whether it would decline to permit Colombian troops to be landed on the Isthmus to suppress the revolt, or send American ships and troops to the Isthmus for the purpose of preserving Colombian sovereignty.

Mr. Beaupré had already informed the Colombian Government of the recognition of the Panama republic and the intention of the United States to prevent the disturbance of the peace of the Isthmus, but for some reason the administration at Bogota leclined to regard this information as official and final, and desired additional confirmation from Washington.

Mr. Beaupré therefore requested Secre tary Hay to send him instructions, and the request was promptly complied with. In Mr. Hay's telegram Mr. Beaupre was directed to inform the Colombian Government that the United States, with the kindliest feelings toward Colombia, had recognized the Republic of Panama in the interests of peace and humanity and the general good, and was maintaining its solemn treaty obligations to preserve order and prevent bloodshed on the Isthmus and to prevent the interruption of transisthmian

He was told also to tender the good offices of the United States to bring about an amicable adjustment of the present differences between Colombia and the Republic of Panama.

It is feared here that when Mr. Beaupré communicates to the Colombian Government the information contained in the instructions sent to-day he will receive his passports and that the relations between the United States and Colombia will be broken off. There is also believed to be good reason for the opinion that Colombia may declare war against the United States. No concern is felt in official circles over the outcome of a declaration of war by Colombia. and the opinion is general that there will not be a single shot fired by either American or Colombian troops. The Administration, however, desires to avoid any such embarrassing situation and will do its utmost to persuade the Colombians not to resort to drastic measures.

As for Mr. Beaupr é, it was declared tonight by a high official that, while there was much excitement in Bogota, and great feeling against the United States, no threats against him personally had been made and there was no apprehension for his safety. Mr. Beaupré has authority from Secretary Hay to return to the United States on leave of absence whenever he desires to do so, so that he will not have to wait for special permission to leave his post should his position there become

A long conference was held at the Navy Department this afternoon between Secretary of the Navy Moody, Acting Secretary of State Loomis and Rear Admiral Taylor, chief of the Bureau of Navigation, but it was not learned that orders for additional ships and marines to proceed to the Isthmus have been issued.

WARNING TO DR. HERRAN.

His Friends in Colombia Tell Him Not t Return There at Present.

WASHINGTON, Nov 18 -- Dr. Herran, the Colombian Chargé d'Affaires, has been advised by his friends in Colombia not to return to that country during the present state of unrest. He has received no information whatever from the officials of his Government since the outbreak on the Isthmus of Panama, but private despatches have told him that it would not be safe for him to go to Colombia for some time. It is apparent from such information as he has received that there is strong popular feeling against both the United States and the Colombian officials who were parties to the making of the Panama canal ¶ Newspaper and Magazine Advertising placed by WOODBURY Ltd., General Agents, is pro-pared by The CHELTENHAM Press.

treaty which failed to receive the approval of the Colombian Congress. Several of the diplomatic representatives of other South American and Central American countries have received despatches from their governments saying that there is a general condemnation of the action of the United States in recognizing the Republie of Panama.

Dr. Herran does not look for any serious rouble between the United States and Colombia, and insists that Colombia can do nothing toward asserting her rights on the Isthmus as long as American warships are there to prevent the landing of roops. He says, however, that the confuct of the United States will by no means mprove the commercial relations between his country and South and Central America. On the contrary, he thinks that advices from these countries indicate a strong anti-American feeling that will be shown

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.-The provisional plans for sending troops to the Isthmus of Panama are still under consideration by he officers of the General Staff and the Bureau Chiefs of the army. It is not necessury for them to wait for any special in-structions from the Secretary of War to prepare for such an emergency as may arise out of trouble with Colombia. The special duty of the General Staff is to study all war problems and prepare plans of campaign in advance and upon short notice. The question of sending troops to the Isthmus came up soon after the uprising at Panama, and since then the General Staff has been preparing a plan of campaign. The latest project provides for sending the Ninth Infantry and Sixteenth Infantry to Colon together with a battery of artillery, and it is now said that Brig.-Gen. J. COLOMBIANS ON THE CUBAN. Federal Officials Hold a Conference With Them on the Quarantined Ship.

GALVESTON, Tex., Nov. 18.-The mystery surrounding the persons who are on board he Leyland Line steamer Cuban, which has cen in this port for the past several days, is unsolved. Persistent efforts have been made to find out who these people are and their mission to this country, without avail. It is the general belief that President Marroquin is not one of the party of three strangers, but the developments to-day were of such a character as to lead the ewspaper men to believe that they are his representatives and are on their way to Washington.

The first persons to board the steamer, other than State Quarantine Officer McCleland, performed this act to-day. Deputy United States Customs Collector Rosenthal, accompanied by United States District Attorney McLemore, went out late this afternoon to the quarantined Cuban.

Not only did these officials absolutely refuse to allow any newspaper man to accompany the party, but efforts were made to deceive them, both as to the time and place of leaving and arriving at the wharves. The officials spent about an hour on board the Cuban.

Upon their return they landed at the Government barge office, where a conference was held behind locked doors. Deputy Collector Rosenthal absolutely declined to say anything whatever to reporters. Mr. Rosenthal went to the telegraph office immediately after leaving the barge office and it is believed telegraphed to Washing-

JOHN CADOO MET FATHER SAN-DER AT FAR HILLS FARM,

Where He Kept a Trotter and Was, It Is Sald, Known as George West-"Mrs. West" Has Disappeared-Priest's Fondness for Trotters Caused Comment.

The parishioners of St. Leonard's Roman Catholic Church in Williamsburg were anxious to find out yesterday if their pastor, the Rev. George D. Sander, has an interest in a stock breeding farm at Far Hills, N. J. That Father Sander has long been a lover of fast horses has been well known to most of his parishioners.

According to the stories that have been circulated Father Sander has been known at the Far Hills stock farm as "George West," and not as a priest. There has been a woman at the stock farm, and the village folk have known her as "Mrs. West." Acording to the stories this woman formerly lived in Father Sander's parish, and for some time has been housekeeper at the farm. Father Sander is said to be in partnership in the farm with Joseph C. Peck, although Mr. Peck's friends do not think the priest has any interest in the farm.

Father Sander left his home after saving 6 o'clock mass vesterday morning and at a late hour last night had not returned, so the servant said. His assistant, Father Bettinger, said he did not believe there was any foundation for the stories. He said that it was true that Father Sander was fond of fast horses, but that he had never neglected his church work for them.

The farm at Far Hills was practically abandoned yesterday. A man who said he was Louis Peck, a brother of the owner, said that he had no information for reporters. He said that "Mrs. West" had lef the farm and that his brother was away.

The farm is well equipped for stock breeding and there is a large house on a hill. "Mrs. West" frequently rode on horseback to the post office for mail, and horseback to the post office for mail, and a man who said he was "Mr. West," but who wasn't dressed as a clergyman, was often seen around the farm.

It is said that Mrs. West is Mrs. Mamie Schootthauer or Mrs. Kipp. Mrs. Kipp is a daughter-in-law of Mrs. Mangaret Kipp of 316 Evergreen avenue, Brooklyn. When her son married,her name was Schlotthauer, but she remarried after ward and her son took the name of Kipp. Mrs. Kipp said yesterbut she remarried after ward and her son took the name of Kipp. Mrs. kipp said yesterday that her daughter-in-law met Father Sander about three years ago, when she was sick. Father Sander tried to convert her husband and took an interest in her. She married Kipp sixteen years ago.

Father Sander wiped out the debt and then started to raise $285,000 to build a new church. He got $85,000 in the first year, with which he built the basement of the church.

William Sander, a brother of the priest, said yesterday that his brother's liking for fast horses caused talk in the parish. About three years ago Father Sander

$10,000 FOR LIBELLING DOCTOR. CONKLING SEEN IN ALBANY. Verdict Against Secretary of the Anti-Vivisection Society.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN LONDON, Nov. 18.-The action for libel brought by Dr. William Bayliss, assistant professor of physiology in London University College, against the Hon. Stephen Coleridge, secretary of the Anti-Vivisection Society, resulted to-day in a verdict for £2,000 damages.

The defendant relied mainly upon the evidence of two Swedish women students, who described a particular case that had been witnessed by them. It is noteworthy that one of the witnesses was Miss Lind, daughter of the late Chief Justice of Sweden; the defendant is a son of the late Chief Justice of England, and Lord Chief Justice Alverstone presided at the trial.

The action was based on a book written y the women, entitled "The Shambles of Science." One passage, which was quoted as being worthy of showing the bent of the mind of the writers, runs thus: "The lecturer, attired in the blood-stained surplice of a priest of vivisection, has tucked up his sleeves and is now comfortably smoking his pipe, while with hands colored crimson, The argument offered by the defence

CHEROKEE TAKES OUR CONSUL-GENERAL TO SANTO DOMINGO.

If She Runs It, the Blockade of Other Ports Is Ineffective-If Deminican Gunboats Sink Her That Will Be Effective-It Suspected That They Won't.

The Clyde Line steamship Cherokee sailed yesterday afternoon from her pier, at the foot of Roosevelt street, for ports in Santo Domingo, after the Dominican Consul-General Manuel de J. Galvan, refused to visé her clearance papers, issued by the Collector of the Port.

Among her eighteen passengers, most of whom are bound for the five ports that the Dominican Government has declared closed, is C. L. Maxwell, American Consul General at Santo Domingo, who is returning to his post after a three months vacation. Mr. Maxwell said he had instructions from the State Department how to act but could not reveal them. He intimated that the United States cruiser Baltimore might escort the Cherokee in case she were followed by one of the two gunboats forming the Dominican navy.

Manufacturing Fur Merchant,

Announces That the Styles in Furs Which Will Be Worn During the Coming Winter Are Ready.

head the list of RUSSIAN SABLES valuable furs, and are more fashionable than ever this season.

NOTE.—I make a specialty of Russian Sables: import the skins undressed duty free, they are dressed here better than by any other nation: articles for wear are manufactured in my own work shops: I can successfully compete with any other reliable house in the world.

I was awarded highest prizes at the World's Fair for the best dressed Russian and Hudson Bay Sables and other fur skins, also received highest prizes for garments of Russian and Hudson Bay Sable. Mink. Sealskin, Persian Lamb and Ermine.

It requires 3 Russian Sable skins to make an average size muff; larger muffs in proportion. Price per skin, dressed, ready for use, $50, $65, $85, $125, $150, $175, $200, $250, $300, $400 and $500 for the handsomest in the world.

The most fashionable styles are the long Victorines, Stoles and Boas, although short pieces which tie around the neck are in demand. In stock pretty pieces, made from 2 skins, for $100, $130, $170, $250, $300 and $400; 3, 4 and 5 skin neck pieces in proportion.

A very large assortment of manufactured articles, from $100 to $15,000. A beautiful Mantle, made with long tabs, manufactured from Imperial Crown skins, $6,650. Another, lined with white satin, trimmed with tails and paws, $4,500. An Imperial Stole, Ermine lined, trimmed with tails and paws, $4,000. Beautiful double Stole for $3,600. Shaped double Stole, extra long, handsomely trimmed with tails and paws, $1,800. Boas, Neck Pieces, Victorines, all the new shapes, manufactured from the $100, $150, $200, $250 and $300 skins. Probably the finest collection in the world.

NOTE.—Everything new, desirable and fashionable in Sables in stock, made from the natural skins, not blended or darkened.

Handsome sets of Russian Sable, perfectly matched, can be had from $750, $1,000, $1,500, $2,500 up.

rank next in value to HUDSON BAY Russian Sables. The SABLES average cost of Hudson Bay Sables is about onefifth the price of Russian Sables. A very good set can be had for $200, $250, $400. $600. A neck piece for $40, $60, $75, NOTE.—An article so valuable as Sable should be purchased in a good light on a clear day. From 9.30 in the morning to 3 in the afternoon. I give my personal attention to the sale of Sables, and will be glad to give pur-chasers the benefit of my experience in assisting them to select the best goods for the money.

I do not sell blended or darkened Russian or Hudson Bay Sable, only the genuine, natural skins, which I can recommend with confidence.

ROYAL ERMINE, MOLESKIN, CHIN-CHILLA and SQUIRREL, made up in the latest styles at the lowest possible prices at which they can be furnished.

FOX. LYNX and BEAR are among the fashionable fluffy furs. Bear is the most durable, but the demand is greater for Lynx and Fox because they are more beautiful, but I do not recommend either for long service.

A handsome, reliable fur. Fash-MINK! ionable muff of splendid quality, $50; some as low as $15, $20 and $30. Neck pieces, Victorines and Ties, in all the leading fashionable styles, at corresponding prices.

Jackets, Coats, Newmarkets, &c., plain and trimmed. Alaska Sealskin (London dyed).

Persian Lamb, Silken Persian and Broadtail (Leipzig dyed).

SLEIGH, CARRIAGE and AUTOMOBILE ROBES,

RUGS, MATS and COACHMAN'S OUTFITS, FUR LINED OVERCOATS, AUTOMOBILE COATS for Men and Women.

Also Full Line LADIES' FUR LINED CIRCULARS.

Everything in Reliable Pura.

The styles are right, the prices are right, and the firm name carries the guarantee of reliability.

A new feature is our Pur Millinery Department.

NOTE.—Any Milliner Will Make a Hat. But It Takes a Fur Milliner to Build a Stylish Fur Hat.
